DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1-16, 17-21, 22, 23, and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

In order for the claimed invention to be statutory subject matter, the claimed invention must fall within one of the statutory classes of invention as set forth in § 101 (i.e. a process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter).

In the present case, claims 1-16, 17-21, 22, 23, and 24 are directed to "A method for promoting business", which is not within one of the classes of invention set forth in § 101.

The "method for promoting business" comprising the steps of (a) purchasing good will from a candidate {for claims 1-16, 22}, steps (a)-(e) {for claims 17, 23, 24}, as shown are merely an abstract idea and do not produce a useful, tangible, concrete results.

The "method for promoting business" comprising the steps as shown are merely an abstract idea and does not reduce to a practical application in the technological arts (computer/network) and are therefore are found to be non-statutory subject matter.

Art Unit: 3629

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1-16, 17-21, 22, 23, 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It's not clear how a method for promoting business is carried by purchasing a goodwill from a candidate, thereby providing income for use in developing business.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

1. US: US 2003/0141214 is cited to teach the general concept of goodwill by the purchase of material.
